

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE ACTION

[Owner-Occupied - Preliminary Loss Mitigation Affidavit]

This Notice is Required by Maryland Law (Real Property Article, §7-105.1, Annotated Code of Maryland).

A foreclosure sale of this property may occur as soon as 68 days from this notice if you do not respond

If you own and live in this home, you may qualify for alternatives to foreclosure, but you must act quickly.

We have included:

- Preliminary Loss Mitigation Affidavit – this is a legal document completed by your mortgage company (sometimes referred to as servicer) explaining that they have not completed an evaluation of your loan for possible alternatives to foreclosure and why.
- Loss Mitigation Application – this is the application that your mortgage company will review to see if you qualify for alternatives to foreclosure. If you need help completing this form, please contact a housing counselor (information below).
- Addressed Envelope to mail the Loss Mitigation Application.

What happens if you do nothing?

In 28 days or more, you will receive a Final Loss Mitigation Affidavit, which will include a form to request FORECLOSURE MEDIATION.

- You qualify for foreclosure mediation only after the Final Loss Mitigation Affidavit has been filed with the court.
- You have only 25 days after the mailing date of the final loss mitigation affidavit to request foreclosure mediation so it is important that you continue to open your mail.

Beware of anyone offering to “save” your home or requesting an upfront fee before providing assistance. This is illegal in the State of Maryland. If you believe you have been a victim of a scam, please contact Maryland's office of the Commissioner of Financial Regulation by calling 410-230-6077 or visiting <http://www.dllr.state.md.us/finance/>.

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE ACTION

[Vacant and Abandoned Property]

This Notice is Required by Maryland Law (Real Property Article, §7-105.14(f)(4), Annotated Code of Maryland).

The property described in the attached foreclosure action has been found to be vacant and abandoned. You may challenge this finding. Your challenge must be filed with the [name of County] Circuit Court no later than 20 days after you have been served with this Notice.

[Name of County] Circuit Court granted a petition filed by [secured party] concerning the residential property located at [address]. [Name of County] Circuit Court found that the property is vacant and abandoned and a foreclosure action has been filed against the property based on this finding. Unless you successfully challenge this finding, the foreclosure will be expedited and certain protections will not apply because the property has been found to be vacant and abandoned.

You have the right to challenge the [name of County] Circuit Court's finding that the property is vacant and abandoned. You must file such a challenge with the [name of County] Circuit Court no later than 20 days after you have been served with this Notice. If your challenge is upheld, the secured party must comply with the normal foreclosure timeline and procedures.

If either you or another occupant resides in the home, you should contact [insert name of Substitute Trustee or mortgage company] IMMEDIATELY at [insert number] to inform them that the property is not vacant and abandoned. Regardless, if you do not cure the default or reach an agreement with your mortgage company to avoid foreclosure, you may lose your property.
